TEN CENTS PER WEEK

JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1903.

PRICE THREE CENTS

CONSERVATISM THE RULE

READJUSTMENT SUCCEEDS SPECULATIVE EXCESSSES

Prospects for Steady Gain in Trade are Brighter Under Present System—Reports of Dun and Bradstreet.

New York, Sept. 4.—Dun's review of trade says: Striking contrast appears where comparison is made with the corresponding week last year. Prices then were tending upward in many branches of industry, new business coming forward more rapidly than it could be handled, and in the security market all records for activity and high prices were being surpassed. Later events have demonstrated the situation was unhealthy and speculative excesses have been followed by reaction and readjustment. Conservatism was then an exception; it is now the rule. Prospects for steady gains and their maintenance are brighter under the present system. Legitimate trade will continue to suffer from losses in speculation and high rates for commercial loans will militate against industrial expansion, but in the long run a larger degree of caution should prove beneficial.

Buyers are still coming to the leading markets in great number and testify to the sound condition of business at the interior. Manufacturing plants are busy throughout New England aside from cotton mills and there is notable activity in wearing apparel at the south, while prospects for large full retail trade are bright everywhere. Already there is traffic congestion at several points, despite the fact that crops have only just begun to move, and railway earnings of August show gains of 9.3 per cent over last year and 17.4 per cent over 1901.

Unprofitably low prices have had the effect of curtailing production in iron and steel industry. Labor and other costs of production, with the single exception of fuel, are much higher, while consumers are slow to purchase even at the extensive decline that has occurred during the current year. Woolen goods are quiet and steady. Wool is firm at eastern markets. Failures this week in the United States were 131, against 200 the corresponding week last year.

BRADSTREET'S.

Bradstreet's review says: Corn developments have been mostly favorable, fall jobbing trade reports indicate further improvement and monetary conditions show less tension. The time of general business is conservative and the tendency is to eliminate anything in the nature of speculation or over-extension from general business. The manufacturing industry shows continued activity, except in such lines as cotton and silk productions, which note the influence of special conditions, and some lines of iron and steel. Evidence of approaching slackening in the output of anthracite coal is to be seen. Some improvement is noted in the car scarcity trouble and gross earnings of railroads continue large, but increased cost of operation or heavy improvements limit net receipts. Failures show only the usual mismanagement volume as far as number is concerned, but August suspension foot up larger total liabilities, particularly of small financial institutions and manufacturers. Collections are still rather backward, though some improvement is noted where backward crops have to be realized on.

Dry goods are in better demand from New York, Philadelphia and Boston jobbers, but business with first hands is limited by uncertainty as to the outlook for raw cotton prices and small stocks of goods now being carried. In woolen goods good demand for spring weights is noted but worsted, diag slightly. Lumber is active and firm at the west, but rather slow and draggy at the east, where labor conditions are not altogether settled.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week, 3,332,000 bushels, against 6,750,000 this week last year. For nine weeks of the current year, 25,210,000 bushels, against 43,033,000 in 1902.

Corn exports for the week, 529,000 bushels, against 21,000 a year ago. For nine weeks of the present cereal year, 3,194,000 bushels, against 776,000 in 1902.

ORDINANCE ILLEGAL.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 4.—The city of Topeka has lost its fight for dollar gas. Two years ago the council passed an ordinance requiring the local gas company to furnish gas at a dollar a thousand. The company enjoined the city and brought suit to annul the ordinance. Master in Chancery Brock decided the rate to be confiscatory and the ordinance therefore illegal.

REVERSAL OF CONDITIONS.

Kansas City, Sept. 4.—The situation in northeast Missouri has produced a reversal of ordinary strike conditions. By setting the authority of the national organization the miners have turned themselves from drawing strike benefits. But the southwestern coal operators have been less animated responsibility of industry operators for Kansas and Missouri.

FAST DROPPING OUT

Pension List of Old Soldiers Shows Big Decrease—Illinois Has 71,627 Names on Roll.

Washington, Sept. 4.—On June 30, 1902, there were 1,001,494 pensioners on the rolls of the United States. These detailed figures were made public to day by the commissioner of pensions:

On the corresponding date this year the number had declined to 965,545. Nearly 41,000 names have been dropped from the pension rolls in the past year by reason of deaths, the number running from 2,000 to 5,000 a month.

Ohio leads the states in the amount of pensions paid by the federal government. She has 102,315 pensioners, drawing more than $15,000,000. Pennsylvania is next, with 101,164 pensioners, the disbursements aggregating $13,350,000. New York is third, with $9,821,000. The total for the year is about $33,000,000, there being very little change in the appropriations on account of pensions during the past five years. The following table shows the number of pensioners on June 30 last and the amount paid out in pensions in the respective states during the last fiscal year:

States—	Numbers of pensioners.	Amount paid.
Indiana	64,164	$10,101,000
Arkansas	11,342	1,515,350
Illinois	71,627	9,782,000
Missouri	52,157	7,124,000
Indian Territory	3,558	567,000
Oklahoma	8,818	1,200,000
Colorado	12,172	1,419,000
Texas	5,594	1,088,000

DOROTHY YATES ILL

The Governor Cancels Knox County Engagement.

Springfield, Sept. 4.—Governor Yates did not fill his engagement to speak at the Knox county fair at Galesburg to day owing to the serious illness of his daughter Dorothy at Harbor Springs, Mich. Mrs. Yates left for Harbor Springs yesterday, the governor holding himself in readiness to follow at any moment.

ARMY OF CUMBERLAND.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Gen. H. V. Boynton has issued acclur to members of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, informing them the next reunion will be held in Washington Oct. 14-16 and that the society will participate in the dedication of a statue of Gen. W. T. Sherman Oct. 15. The first business meeting will be held there Oct. 14.

NEW JERSEY MEN WON.

Sea Girt, Sept. 4.—The team of six men representing the First Regiment New Jersey national guard won the trophy, cash prize of $100 and medal for each team member, in the interstate regimental team match, firing in which was concluded this morning. Twenty-seven teams representing national guard of different states, United States navy and marine corps competed. The finish was remarkably close.

THE CUP DEFENDER.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Reliance, in tow of the tug Guiding Star, left early to day on the way up the bay. Both yacht and tug were covered with flags. Passing craft, and those at anchor gave the cup defender a cordial greeting as she passed up the harbor.

BELGIUM KING VISITS LOUBET.

Paris, Sept. 4.—President Loubet received King Leopold of Belgium to day at Elysee palace. The meeting was significant in connection with Great Britain's representations to the powers on the condition of affairs in the Congo state. It is understood Belgium is seeking co-operation of France in maintenance of the present status.

DROWNED HIMSELF.

Kansas City, Sept. 4.—An unknown negro was caught this afternoon in the act of assaulting Mrs. Margaret Gerahn, white, in her home at Armourdale. He fled, chased by a crowd, and when he realized escape was impossible drowned himself in the Kansas river by jumping overboard from a rowboat in which he was trying to gain the Missouri side.

BANK CLEARINGS.

New York, Sept. 4.—The statement compiled by Bradstreet's shows total bank clearings of the principal cities in the United States for the week were $1,999,230,161, a decrease of 11.2 per cent compared with the corresponding week last year.

RAN A FAST MILE.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Minute Man, 2-year-old owned by J. E. Madden, ran the fastest mile run in the east in four or five years at Sheepshead bay to day and beat McCheney, the idol of the west. He went the distance in 1:28.45.

TIME TOO SHORT.

New York, Sept. 4.—Jack Munroe, of Swifts, Mo., to day refused to immediately fight Jimmie, winning the following money to Manager Carey of the City Athletic Club, who had offered him $100 to fight.

PROTECTION FOR AMERICANS

UNITED STATES CRUISERS ARRIVE AT BEIRUT

Additional Detectives Placed Around American Legation at Constantinople—Other Powers May Land Marines.

Beirut, Syria, Sept. 4.—The United States cruisers Brooklyn and San Francisco have arrived here.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Minister Leishman cabled the state department owing to disturbed conditions in Constantinople an additional detective force was stationed at the American legation. This action was taken on suggestion of the Turkish government, which assured the American minister it will use every precaution to protect all foreigners, but has warned different embassies and legations it would be well to strengthen the force inside the buildings. In case necessity develops it is probable the Turkish government will be requested to allow the United States to send a detachment of marines from the squadron which is expected to arrive at Beirut to day. Leishman also informed the department a number of governments were landing marines in Constantinople for the protection of embassies.

Paris, Sept. 4.—It is authoritatively stated in view of growing disorders in Turkey a French fleet will be ordered to hold itself in readiness to proceed to Turkish waters. Determination followed receipt of the report from the French ambassador at Constantinople. Similar preparations were made by Italy, Austria, Russia and Great Britain. Officials here expect the fleets will act together in case of a crisis.

Sofia, Sept. 4.—Colonel Jankoff, insurgent leader, with three lieutenants of the Serbian army, at the head of a band of 400 insurgents, with flag flying, crossed the frontier Monday evening and passed through Turkish posts unopposed. General Sotosheff, president of the Macedonian committee, in disguise of a sheep dealer, also crossed the frontier.

Captain Stoyadoff's band captured fifty Turkish soldiers at Rakovitz, fifteen miles southeast of Sofia, Aug. 31, took their arms and ammunition and proceeded to Kolinshko.

A dispatch from Rila, forty miles from Sofia, says the date of general insurrection has been postponed.

Constantinople, Sept. 4.—Consul Ravndal telegraphed from Beirut to Minister Leishman the authorities there are actively seeking the assassin of Vice Consul Magelssen. The consul is not able to state if he is among the persons already arrested.

Turkish official reports indicate complete success of military operations against insurgents in Kilisura district. Over four hundred insurgents are reported killed.

It is now said the assistant conductor of the sleeping car was the author of the bomb outrage Aug. 27, when an east bound daily express from Buda Pest to Constantinople was blown up near Kuleli-burg and seven persons killed. He left the train at Philippopolis and has been arrested there.

CONSUL SATISFIED.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Cheikh Bey, Turkish minister, called on Secretary Hay to day to inform him he had received from his foreign office official advice to the effect the American consul at Beirut was entirely satisfied with the measures Turkey had taken to protect life and property there and to investigate and act with respect to the assault on Vice Consul Magelssen.

It is a matter of some comment that there are only about 200 marines with the European squadron, but these, with kavasses already in the service of the legation, and with Turkish guards assigned to Minister Leishman will, it is believed, prove sufficient for any emergency likely to arise.

Officials of the state department, commenting upon the item from Paris saying ships of foreign powers would be sent to Turkish waters, stated the United States was now sending ships to Turkish waters. The term "Turkish waters" does not mean Constantinople, they say, and while the whole eastern portion of the Mediterranean might be covered with warships it was possible none of them would force the Dardanelles. After the Crimean war a treaty was made, which was followed by subsequent treaties, which prohibit warships entering the Dardanelles without the consent of Turkey, and Turkey must have the assent of all signatory powers. In 1888 Admiral Arragat with his flagship was invited and ascended the Dardanelles and the powers protested. Then it was determined no war vessel could enter the Dardanelles. There is a provision, however, that in case Turkey is at war with another power she might admit ships of a friendly power. This it is said here, is directed at Russia. In 1901 Turkey under the treaty refused to allow either the Massachusetts or Hancock American warships to enter the Dardanelles. Russian ships of other nations are allowed in the Dardanelles, which have been sent through the Dardanelles, but these are called "friendly" ships.

HILL'S LATEST PROJECT.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 4.—The latest project accredited to J. J. Hill is the establishment of a road from Lake Superior to Hamilton and Labrador. It is said that Hill is now having a survey made of the route.

time. It is believed that in case the United States desired to send a launch or small vessel with guard for the American legation Turkey would have a right to admit them to the Dardanelles without consulting and obtaining permission of the powers.

ARRIVED AT CRISIS.

London, Sept. 4.—The Post publishes a letter from its Constantinople correspondent in which he says: "Things have arrived at a crisis. The United States must either insist upon the porte listening to its representations regarding American converts or drop missionaries altogether. The latter course naturally is impossible and sending of a squadron has great significance as showing determination on the part of America to take an active part in the Turkish question."

The increasingly threatening aspect of affairs in the Balkans seriously occupies all the European capitals. What is to be done in Macedonia is anxiously discussed on all sides. Censorship is active at Constantinople, for the only news thus far of landing of marines emanated from Washington. The subject is not mentioned in any Constantinople dispatches received here. The most active military preparations by the Turkish government are proceeding and Turkish officers are talking of their ability to reach Sofia within three weeks from the outbreak of war.

The Sofia correspondent of the Telegraph declares Bulgaria's aversion to war is insuperable on both military and political grounds. He asserts the Bulgarian government is resolved to sedulously avoid everything calculated to lead to hostilities, firstly, on account of Austro-Russian opposition, and secondly, because the army is totally unprepared for war. It is reported in Constantinople Russia and Austria contemplate proposing joint occupation of the disturbed provinces.

DINNER GIVEN LIPTON

Virtues of Defeated Yachtsman Told in Song and Words by Various Men.

New York, Sept. 4.—Sir Thomas Lipton was the guest of honor of the Pilgrims of the United States at a dinner given in his honor to night. Nearly 150 men prominent in many walks of life were present. Decorations were in keeping with the event. At his outset the guest sang a song to the refrain of "Mr. Dooley," which told of the virtues of Sir Thomas and his efforts to lift the cup. Speeches were made by George T. Wilson, Sir Thomas Lipton, Gen. Joseph Wheeler, Gen. H. C. Corbin, Col. Henry Watterston, former Gov. C. S. Thomas of Colorado and Senator A. E. Bates.

Mr. Wilson, who presided at the banquet, addressing Sir Thomas, said that his attitude had struck a responsive chord in every heart. "As a loser you are a corker. You will ever have the admiration, love and regard of all Americans."

Sir Thomas was given many hearty rounds of cheers when he arose. Speaking of the yacht race, he said he had been beaten fairly and congratulated America on having the best boat. "I am beginning to think," he said, "there is some magic spell about that bloomin' old cup. Two years ago I had it almost within my grasp, but it escaped me then as it has escaped me now, and it seems as far off as ever." He said that although he had been unsuccessful he did not despair and hoped some day to succeed. He pronounced Herreshoff the greatest designer of the age. "America is a very hard country to beat and I know it. I am a very disappointed man, but still I have the consolation that both conquerors and conquered belong to the same good old race. The cup is still in the family, only it is held by a younger and more go-ahead generation." He expressed the deepest gratitude for the spirit of kindness shown him.

General Wheeler, after voicing the club's pleasure the presence of Sir Thomas gave, said: "Events of the last two weeks is an illustration of the old and tried saying that we sometimes build higher than we know. It is fortunate not only for himself but for the world Sir Thomas did not succeed in the special purpose for which he crossed the ocean. What seemed to be loss, misfortune and disaster has become in reality fortune, triumph and victory. Sir Thomas came to America to win a silver cup. He has won what is better than a golden crown—the admiration, applause and love of the world. Any one can be grand in success and victory, but the world produces few who can rise to the height of grandeur when their herculean efforts have failed in the cherished purpose of their ambitions."

Wheeler reviewed the successes and failures of great generals of the world's history and closed with the declaration that when Sir Thomas "returns to our mother country he will be welcome as one who in the eye of the world has elevated the standard of Anglo-Saxon manhood and he will carry with him the ever increasing love and admiration of the American people."

IMPROVE CON- SULAR SERVICE

A CHANGE OF POLICY AS TO APPOINTMENTS

Important Places Will Here- after be Filled by Men of Ex- perience—Will Advance Trade Interests of the United States.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 4.—An important change of policy with respect to making appointments in the consular service has been decided upon by President Roosevelt. He discussed the change to day with Assistant Secretary of State Loomis. For many years it had been practically the uniform practice of presidents to appoint men to the consular service substantially without reference to whatever previous experience they may have had. President Roosevelt, after consultation with Secretary Hay and other members of the cabinet, has determined to appoint hereafter to important places in the consular service men who already are in the service and have had that experience and training in minor positions which will render them the more capable of filling places of higher grade and greater importance. The change in policy does not extend civil service to the consular service and it does not extend, necessarily, a consul's tenure of office at any particular place; but, it is pointed out, it does give reasonable assurance to manufacturing and commercial interests of the United States that in comparatively a brief time all important consular positions will be filled not only by men of character and ability, but by men who, by training and experience, are specially qualified to advance trade interests of the United States.

LIVES IN DANGER

Governor of Colorado Decides to send Troops to Cripple Creek.

Denver, Sept. 4.—Governor Peabody decided at noon to day, after receiving the report of the committee which he sent to Cripple Creek to investigate the strike conditions there, to dispatch troops to Gold Camp. Brig. Gen. John Chase will be in command of the force, which numbers 1,000 men.

The Western Federation of Labor to day protested against the governor's order sending troops to Cripple Creek, saying the strike situation there did not warrant such action and that members of the union would assist in keeping the peace.

Governor Peabody made a statement to night in which he justifies ordering out of troops and says it was the result of an investigation conducted by a committee he sent there for that purpose. The report of this committee was to the effect the lives of citizens were in jeopardy; that a reign of terror existed in the Cripple Creek district and that prompt action was imperative.

FIRE LOSSES.

Vienna, Sept. 4.—Fire yesterday destroyed almost the entire town of Trainlink Bosnia. Several persons were killed and 600 houses, seven mosques and a synagogue were burned.

LIPTON TO VISIT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Sir Thomas Lipton will visit the city next week and be the guest of Alexander H. Revell, according to a statement made by Revell upon receipt of a telegram from the noted yachtman to day. No formal entertainments will be given the British visitor.

AN APPOINTMENT.

Springfield, Sept. 4.—Governor Yates to day appointed Charles A. Ramsay, of Hillsboro, trustee of the Illinois Soldiers' Widows' home at Wilmington, vice General Campbell, of McLeansboro, who refused to qualify, holding as he was not a veteran of the civil war he deemed himself ineligible for the appointment.

DEATHS.

Munich, Sept. 4.—Herman Zumppe, composer and musical conductor, died here to day of apoplexy.

Kokomo, Ind., Sept. 4.—Mary Gano Bryan Cobb, step-grandmother of W. J. Bryan, died this afternoon at her home in New London. She was one of the pioneers of this county. William J. Bryan has been wired and it is probable he will attend the funeral, to be held at New London Sunday.

CONDITION OF MINERS' UNION.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—The auditing committee of the United Mine Workers of America to day submitted its quarterly report to Secretary-Treasurer Wilson. It shows $2,000 members. Less than 2,000 are out on strike. The miners now have $20,000 in their treasury.

ORDERED TO PHILIPPINES.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The twentieth regiment infantry, the latter part of which is now stationed at Fort Sheridan, is ordered to the Philippines.

SECRETARY SHAW

Talks on Agricultural Topics at Ohio State Fair—Farmer Boys Praised.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Secretary Shaw delivered an address at the state fair grounds this afternoon. Shaw did not mention the currency question in his speech, confining himself to general agricultural topics. He declared in his economic agriculture had not kept pace with other industries. He declared there was no excuse for land deteriorating and said economy must be practiced on the farm as well as in the factory, packing house and refinery. The success of farm-reared boys in all lines of business and professions is not to be wondered at, he said, because of the habits of industry and thrift and self-reliance he learns. "Upon your farms you hold the most hopeful generation of boys of which this world has knowledge," he declared. "Do not teach them they must leave the farm in order to succeed. Good roads, interurban lines, automobiles and rural free mail delivery are destined to bring to the farmer's door every real advantage incident to the city and in no manner discount the peculiar benefits of country life."

SHAFER MISSING.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—The Dispatch says: Theodore Shaffer, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, is missing. He has dropped mysteriously out of sight and for several weeks neither fellow officials at the local office nor members of his family have been able to locate him. Shaffer left Pittsburg presumably to attend a conference at Cleveland. He failed to arrive there and it was thought he would surely attend the meeting of sheetmen in this city Monday last, but again he failed to appear and has not been seen by any of the labor leaders or personal friends.

BASE BALL

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

SAD CASE OF SUICIDE

Father's Rebuke Results in a Little Girl Hanging Herself

Lebanon, Ill., Sept. 4.—The body of pretty, unhappy Elsie Duckett, into whose life came far more tragedy than a girl of 15 should know, was buried in College Hill cemetery, just back of McKendree college, today.

Among the pall bearers was William Croffley, of Bennett's Pit, whose boyish letter, ending with a quotation that was harmlessly, although perhaps foolishly sentimental, led to the censure from her father, after which she hanged herself.

"As long as the vine runs 'round the stump I'll be your darling sugar lump."

Thus had the boy written at the end of a letter which contained his acknowledgment of her consent to an early visit from him. In her letter she had quoted:

"Rose's red and violet's blue—Sugar is sweet and so are you."

Old quotations, both of them, and familiar to generations of boys and girls in all sections, whether rural or urban; but never, perhaps, the cause of suicide before this time.

When Croffley's letter reached the home of Jacob Duckett Elsie was at work in the cornfield with her brother Elmer. She was cutting corn, for violent deaths had been the fate of three of her brothers and she, often did a boy's work about the farm. Her father and younger brother, Jacob, were in another part of the field, close to where the rural mail carrier left the letters that came to the family.

When young Jacob took the mail he told his father that one of the letters was from a boy and that it was for Elsie. The father ordered him to open and read it. FATHER'S ANGER CAUSES REBUKE. When the boy's voice repeated the quotation at the end of the father's anger broke forth. He firmly declared that he was going to "stop that foolishness" and straightaway went to where Elsie was working, commanding her to refuse to see Croffley again and to stop writing to or receiving letters from him.

The daughter said little, but her eyes filled with tears. She continued listlessly to cut corn. After a while she complained that her knife was dull and said that she would go to a grindstone at the back of the house to sharpen it. She went alone.

An hour later, when she had not returned, her brother Elmer went to the barn. He found her body hanging from a rope about her neck. She was quite dead.

Dr. Vaine, acting for the coroner, held an inquest and made a thorough investigation into the circumstances of her death. The parents, the brothers, young Croffley and various young people of her acquaintance were examined. It developed that Elsie had been strangely affected by the deaths of her brothers, two of whom died within the past eighteen months. Walter, 9 years old, was accidentally shot by a negro with whom he was hunting, the negro falling and his gun being discharged; Raymond, 6 years old, died of lockjaw; another brother was drowned about two years before.

Croffley said he had gone to see her father as soon as he heard of Elsie's death and asked him what fault he found with the letter. Mr. Duckett, still stunned by the unexpected action of his daughter, told him that there was none and that he only meant to advise the girl against sentimental thoughts until she was older. Croffley's friends say he was entirely blameless in the matter.

STREET FAIR RAIDED.

Mishawaka, Ind., Sept. 4.—Twenty officers confiscated fifty nickel-in-the-slot machines doing a big business during the street carnival here. The raids were the result of action taken by the members of the Methodist church and the Annex Christian association. Monday night six roulette wheel dens were cleared. Wednesday night the beer gardens and German villages were closed up and the climax came last night. Open threats of personal violence are being made against "church spies."

GAVE A PARTY.

Misses Grace and Theresa Harmon most delightfully entertained a number of young friends Thursday night in honor of their brother, J. Hancock Harmon, of Chicago. The evening passed very happily and delicious refreshments were a pleasant feature of the occasion. All the guests departed at a late hour greatly pleased with the hours spent with their young hostesses.

THE PROPER TREATMENT FOR A SPRAINED ANKLE.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle and it is usually two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time and the sufferer is able to walk and do his usual work without delay. For sale at all drug stores.

SIR THOMAS, LIFE SAVER

How Lipton Rescued Imperiled Spectators of Yacht Race.

HIS OWN LAUNCH NEARLY LOST.

In the Teeth of a Terrible Gale the Baronet Takes Four Women From Disabled Pleasure Boat—Assumes Command of the Craft, Whose Master Was Dashed by Accident.

Black skies streaked with flashes of lightning, a seething squall tearing boats from their moorings and sending a fleet of yachts, both steam and sail, driving to leeward until there were a crashing and splintering of spars and bulwarks, and in all of this Sir Thomas Lipton in a half swamped launch hastening to the rescue of imperiled women, was the scene of Sandy Hook following the second of the series of races for the America's cup, says the New York Herald.

In a terrific squall from the northwest that broke over the Sandy Hook anchorage the brigantine rigged steam yacht Allita, belonging to John H. Flagler, vice commodore of the Atlantic Yacht club, with Mrs. Mandelick, mother of Mrs. Flagler, and Miss McClellan and two maids on board, was driven on to the big steam yacht Giralda, flagship of the Philadelphia Yacht club.

Bearing true to the whipping hurricane, the bowsprit of the Philadelphia yacht snapped the Allita at the bulwarks just aft the starboard gangway. There was a terrific crash as a huge hole was torn in the bulwarks, and the bowsprit of the Giralda was broken short off at the stem. Then as the yachts ground against each other like upper and lower millstones the rigging was torn from its fastenings until the Giralda was decapitated and the starboard main rigging of the Allita threatened to go at any moment.

It was at this time that Sir Thomas appeared with his friends Jack Wilson and Colonel Neill to effect a needed rescue. There was no opportunity to get between the yachts, and minutes before the starboard companionway of the Allita had gone overboard the baronet shouted, "Come here, ladies," and Mrs. Mandelick and Miss McClellan hastened to the footfall, where the willing hands of Sir Thomas and friends were uplifted to receive them. There was no gangway or side ladder, and in the vicious sea the women were helped one by one to seats safe though uncomfortable, because the launch had well nigh swamped before its arrival.

Safely back to the Erin the launch sped on, but Sir Thomas' practiced eye had noticed still more work to do. Signaling his big tug, the Cruiser, to up anchors and steam alongside, another launch, the Smoker, as she is nicknamed, was quickly filled with a dozen picked sailors, and, with the baronet, Colonel Neill and Mr. Wilson, went again to the entangled yachts.

Sir Thomas, seeing the panic of those on board, assumed command of the Allita, as Captain Ludlow, the aged sailing master, seemed dazed by the turn of affairs. The wreckage was cleared away, and in the teeth of the driving storm the big Cruiser sent a line aboard the yachts. After the Erin's crew had weighed the Allita's anchor the tug towed her stern first to a safe anchorage a quarter of a mile away.

This done, and well done, Sir Thomas hastened to the Giralda, which, besides losing her head gear, was tangled in a fish net which extended out far from the shore.

"Are you looking?" called out Sir Thomas from his launch. "What can I do to help you? Come on board of the Erin."

Before Commodore English of the Giralda or his party could answer Sir Thomas was alongside and on deck.

"I thought you were both going down at one time," he said. "My, but you are scored up!" as he gazed at the damage forward.

Commodore English asked only that the Cruiser stand by until they had sufficient steam to get away.

From Sir Thomas' own lips, when seen on board the Erin later, came a modest recital of his chivalry.

"I saw the Allita driving broadside down upon the Giralda, and as they came together," said he, "I feared that the bowsprit of the Philadelphia yacht would tear away the main rigging of Mr. Flagler's boat and the malnourished and maybe the foremost, with his heavy yards, would fall. Why, it might have killed the ladies!"

During the excitement the Earl and Countess of Shaftesbury, with the Hon. Charles Russell and other members of the Lipton party on the Erin, watched the exciting incident from the bridge of the big yacht. Commodore English, whose sentiments were assented to by his friends, said:

"Sir Thomas came on board and in the midst of the job made us forget our troubles. When the races are over he ought to be kept in this country. He is a wonder." Mrs. Mandelick, with Miss McClellan said: "Yes, we had a very narrow escape. We owe everything to Sir Thomas. No one was injured."

Misses Grace and Theresa Harmon. Fully 2,000 people gathered at the Grand Central station to say farewell to Right Rev. Bishop Colton upon his departure for Buffalo, says the New York Times. The crowd became so enthusiastic that at times the police were forced to keep it back. The young bishop yielded to the demands of the crowd as he stepped on the special car of the Empire State Express and waved his hand in last benediction. The crowd broke on the platform of the station and on the pavement, and many of the women were injured. The bishop, who was seen from the train, waved his hand and was seen from the train, and was seen from the train.

AUGUST WEATHER

Was Up to the Average for the Last Twenty-five Years.

After all August was a very ordinary month, so far as weather was concerned, and when the official records are produced it appears to have been no different from other months of its name. Farmers who complained of cold weather and cold nights and the city street corner agriculturists who predicted a complete failure of the corn crop because the nights were so cool will have to revise their talk, for August weather cannot be blamed if there is no crop. The average temperature for the month was just one degree below the average for twenty-five years. In those twenty-five years there have been eight Augusts whose average temperature was less than the average of this August and one that had the same. The average temperature for the month was 73 degrees. The average for the last twenty-five years has been 74. The following table gives the average temperature for the last twenty-five years:

1879, 73; 1880, 77; 1881, 79; 1882, 74; 1883, 71; 1884, 73; 1885, 71; 1886, 77; 1887, 74; 1888, 71; 1889, 72; 1890, 71; 1891, 72; 1892, 74; 1893, 73; 1894, 75; 1895, 75; 1897, 72; 1898, 75; 1899, 77; 1900, 80; 1901, 76; 1902, 72; 1903, 73.

Not only was the temperature all right, but the rainfall likewise was seasonable and up to the average, in fact, a little above the average of the last twenty-five years. The total precipitation for the last month was 2.95 inches, while the general average for the twenty-five years has been 2.73. Other years have had more rain, but thirteen of the twenty-five have had less, and one year had the same amount. The precipitation for the last twenty-five years has been as follows:

1879, 3.82; 1880, 1.50; 1881, 4.03; 1882, 3.13; 1883, 0.95; 1884, 1.54; 1885, 1.82; 1886, 4.19; 1887, 1.05; 1888, 1.43; 1889, 0.78; 1890, 1.03; 1891, 4.65; 1892, 1.80; 1893, 0.23; 1894, 1.56; 1895, 2.76; 1896, 1.87; 1897, 2.86; 1898, 4.40; 1899, 3.51; 1900, 4.44; 1901, 2.92; 1902, 5.12; 1903, 2.92.

The mean barometer was 29.98, the highest being 30.24, on the 2d and 3d, and the lowest 29.81 on the 27th of the month. The highest temperature was 94 on the 24th, and the lowest 55, on the 31st. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the northwest, the maximum velocity being 31 miles on the 5th.

There were twelve clear, ten partly cloudy and nine cloudy days in the month. There was no frost. These figures are taken from the records of the weather bureau on the top of the federal building and are official government figures.

WRITING A BOOK

Chicago, Sept. 4.—In hiding in a small suite of rooms on the top floor of an apartment building on the north side, John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, is hard at work on his new book on trades unionism. For more than a month his whereabouts have been unknown to his most intimate friends, his successful efforts to seclude himself having thus greatly deepened the mystery already surrounding the book and its writer's methods of gathering and compiling data.

All this time he has been in the same rooms, quietly at work with his staff of four stenographers, writing, dictating and reading and revising proofs. The book will be completed next week, when the last chapter will be in the hands of the publishers.

The book will be a defense of trades unionism, more than 400 pages long and will be profusely illustrated with photographs collected in every part of the United States. They will show strike scenes, men at work in various callings, and shops of almost every kind and description. As they are photographs, it can be said that they truly illustrate conditions as they exist.

LOOKING BACKWARD

Days of Slavery in Cass and Morgan Counties Recalled.

A contributor to a recent issue of the Virginia Gazette gives the following interesting account of slavery
days in Cass and Morgan counties:

As is well known by those who are familiar with Illinois history, all that portion of the United States between the Ohio river and Canada, from New York and Pennsylvania on the east to the Mississippi on the west—including Illinois of course—subsequently known as the Northwestern Territory, was wrested from the English in 1778-79 by Virginia volunteers commanded by Col. George Rogers Clark.
The Virginia legislature then annexed it to that state as "Illinois county," and shortly after the close of the revolutionary war ceded it to the general government.

The ordinance adopted by congress in 1787 for control and disposition of that conquered territory, especially stipulated that slavery should forever be excluded from it. Yet, African slavery, introduced in "the Illinois" in 1719 by Philip Francois Ro-nault, was there an established institution here, and continued undisturbed until adoption of the Illinois constitution of 1847 peremptorily aboish-ed it.

The sketch of our much respected fellow citizen, Wm. Stevenson, in last week's Gazette, reminds me that negro slavery once existed within the present limits of Cass county, a fact of which no doubt but few of your readers are aware. When James Stevenson migrated from Kentucky
to Illinois in 1829 he owned a negro slave woman who was so attached to the family that she begged to be taken along with them to their new home. Her appeal was successful. A strong, gentle horse, with side saddle,
was procured, upon which "Aunt" Rachael was mounted, and thus she rode all the way through from Scott county, Ky., to Little Indian, often dis-mounting, when tired, and walking a mile or two to "spell herself and critter." On arrival here a cabin was built in the rear of the family residence and there, installed as chief cook, the faithful servant passed the remainder of her life. She died many years ago—before the organization of Cass county in 1837—and was buried in the Stevenson burying ground, now enclosed in the timbered pasture east of Little Indian station, where her dust now lies in eternal repose.

It is related that a short time after the Stevenson family was settled here,
when the harvesting and stacking was all done, some of them went across the prairie to attend a camp meeting that was going on in Billy Holmes' grove, and "Aunt" Rachael who was much inclined to piety, accompanied them. In those pioneer days the most popular and convincing Gospel exegesis, particularly at camp meeting, took the form of lurid portrayal of Satan and the lake of burning brimstone over which he presided.
On the occasion mentioned Peter Cartwright and other ministers there dwelled upon atan's insatiable appetite for sinners, and pictured the horror of his fiery dominion with such harrowing earnestness that the seekers around the anxious seat were wrought up to the highest tension of emotional frenzy. But few of them had ever seen a negro, and then as
"Aunt" Rachael approached, a shouting hysterical young woman strongly under conviction suddenly catching a glimpse of her black face, shrieked,
"There is the devil come for me; save me, Lord," and fell in convulsions.

The terror that overcame her became epidemic prostrating others, and for a few minutes all was wild confusion.
"Aunt" Rachael was so disgusted at having been mistaken for the devil that she left as soon as possible for the seclusion of her cabin, and was seen no more at camp meeting.

Since writing the above I have been told that "Aunt" Rachael was free
before leaving Kentucky, consequently must correct my statement that Cass county was at one time polluted
by human slavery.

In St. Clair county some years ago

the board of supervisors fixed the pay of the coroner, based upon a certain number of inquests each year.

The limit has been exceeded this year and the coroner is in trouble. He held two inquests at East St. Louis recently and the jurors would not sign the verdicts till he paid them out of his own pocket. The coroner business appears to be looking up all over the state, and these officials will soon be demanding higher wages.

Attention is called to the excellent report of Chief of Police George H.

Dunavan for August. The number of arrests shows that the law breakers have been sharply looked after and the fines well collected. It may be said that is shows there are a good many infractions of the law, but this will always be the case while human nature remains as it is. It is worthy of notice that there have been practically no great crimes or serious affairs of any kind, or outbreking violations of law.

PASSING OF THE BUFFALO.

Forty or fifty years ago buffalo

robes were shipped in large quantities

from Mackinaw, Detroit, Montreal,

Buffalo Bay, St. Louis and other trading points. Perhaps a million of these robes in the aggregate were shipped each annually. In 1869 Inman, Sheridan and Custer rode continuously for three days through the herd of buffalo in the Arkansas region, and in 1869 trains on the Kansas Pacific were held from nine in the morning until six at night to permit

the passage of one herd across the train. Army officers relate that in 1869 a herd that covered an area of seventy by thirty miles moved north

from the Arkansas to the Yellowstone. Now there are not a thousand head of the American buffalo in the United States.

The passing of the buffalo is to be regretted, as the robes were a valuable article of commerce.

MAY HANDLE EXPRESS.

Three men employed by the Alton

started out from Bloomington in various direction Wednesday for the purpose of visiting every station along the right-of-way of the C. &amp; A. The object of their trip is to ascertain the volume of business done by the express companies and to get exact data regarding expenses of operating and everything else pertaining to the express offices. It is not definitely known what the object for getting this information can be, but it is supposed by several well informed men

that the C. &amp; A. company is figuring upon running their own express business. If it is found that this can be done at no very great cost and will be a money making institution for the Alton it will probably put the express companies along the Alton out of business.

LABOR DAY AT DECATUR.

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 4.—A meeting

of the executive committee of the Trades and Labor assembly was held last night and matters pertaining to the celebration Monday next were discussed. It has been decided to have the speaking both afternoon and evening. In the afternoon speeches will be made by Morrison and Ross and in the evening by Judge Thompson, of Jacksonville, and Attorney O. C.

Adams, of Decatur. The different labor organizations will have floats in the parade.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

Ashland, Sept. 4.—Miss Georgia

Combs, of this city, was adjudged insane before Judge D. N. Walker in this city yesterday morning, and taken to Jacksonville. Her case is a very mate of that hospital for a long time and about four weeks ago she lost her mother. She was thrown on her own resources and was preparing herself

for a school teacher, on borrowed capital, it is understood. She was attending the institute in Virginia last gan to show itself and she was taken home Saturday morning. She is scarcely 30 years of age and is a girl

of unusual beauty.

WASHINGTON LETTER

[Special Correspondence.]

Those who are anxious to settle the problem whether Jonah was actually swallowed by a whale would do well to pay a visit to the rear of the Smithsonian Institution, where for some days past a most remarkable and peculiar diagram has remained staked out on the prim lawn, under the windows of Professor Langley's study, that has greatly puzzled those who have occasion to cross the mall, going by way of the Smithsonian. Professor Lucas, who has just returned from the Newfoundland whale fisheries, and Mr. Palmer, the chief preparateur, were bossing the work, and the diagram in question was the lateral outline and proportions of the big whale, of which they took a complete cast in Newfoundland, and which is now in course of reconstruction

for the St. Louis exposition. In order to construct the inner framework,

or mannikin, for the whale it is necessary to lay out a sort of ground plan from which to work. In the case of other animals this is done indoors, but as the whale in question is all and more than its name implies it was found necessary to do the work out on the lawn. The diagram, as laid out, gives one a very correct idea of the actual proportions of the whale, and those anxious to ascertain the truth or falsity

of the Jonah story are at liberty to measure their length on the well kept lawn within that part of the area marked off for the whale's stomach.

Commerce With Canada Grows.

According to statistics furnished by the department of commerce and labor

through its bureau of statistics the commerce through the United States and Canada was larger in the last fiscal year than in any preceding year.

Imports from Canada amounted to $54,-

600,410 and exports to Canada were $123,472,410. In only one year, that of 1881, did the imports ever before reach the $50,000,000 mark. Exports to Canada never reached $100,000,000 until 1901.

These exports have grown in spite of the fact that the Canadian tariff

has given to the products and manufactures of the United Kingdom and most of her colonies a reduction of 12 1/2 per cent in tariff rates since April,

1897, 25 per cent from August, 1898,

to July 1, 1900, and since that date a reduction of 33 per cent. The imports into Canada from Great Britain have increased from $43,000,000 in 1901 to $50,000,000 in 1903, but the imports from the United States increased in the same time from $110,500,000 to $123,000,000.

Chinese Immigration.

New Chinese regulations, prepared

by Commissioner General of Immigration

Sargent and approved by Secretary Cortelyou of the department of commerce and labor, have been made public and are now ready for distribution. These rules designate what Chinese persons are permitted to land at ports of the United States under the provisions of the laws and treaties, together with the ports at which Chinese

other than Chinese diplomatic and consular officers may land, and name the officers who have been vested with the power and authority heretofore conferred on collectors of customs, giving their stations and jurisdiction. Provision is made for a Bortillon record of all Chinese laborers arriving and departing at ports of entry, copies of such registry to be transmitted to the commissioner general of immigration.

Numerous changes have been necessary in the revision of these rules to make them conform to the transfer of jurisdiction over the subject from the treasury department to the department of commerce and labor.

Surgeon Pryor Commended.

For conspicuous service in saving the lives of two wounded Venezuelans at the recent storming of Ciudad by the government forces Passed Assistant

Surgeon J. C. Pryor of the gunboat

Bancroft, which was up the Orinoco

river at the time, has been warmly

commended in a letter to the navy department by Lieutenant Commander A.

E. Culver, commanding that vessel.

The letter says:

"Dr. Pryor organized in a public building an improvised hospital, and squad of men were sent from the ship

in search of the wounded, and they were soon being brought in from all directions.

"Dr. Pryor received a certain amount of assistance from two Venezuelan doctors and from the surgeon of the French gunboat Joffre, but he personally performed sixty-six operations,

many of them of a grave nature, and

for an entire day and night was understanding in his attentions to the wounded. His work in the hospital was continued until the departure of the ship."

A Memorial Building at Arlington.

Adjutant General Corbin, Quartermaster General Ludington and other high officials of the war department

have promised their hearty co-operation

in efforts being made to have congress appropriate $50,000 for the erection of a suitable memorial building at Arlington, which will accommodate the large crowds that attend the Memorial day, and other exercises held in this cemetery. The matter of urging congress to make this appropriation has been presented to General Corbin and Ludington by a memorial committee

from the G. A. R., Spanish War Veterans and Sons of Veterans.

The president of the United States and many high officials and foreigners

every year attend the memorial exercises at Arlington. The organizations of veterans think that the arrangements ought to be more in keeping with the dignity and importance of the exercises held there. They intend to push the matter until they succeed and appreciate the assistance they are receiving from the war department.

WAS CIRCUS DAY

GREAT CROWDS THROGGED

THE CITY OF TENTS

Morning Parade of Forepaugh-

Sells Aggregation Witnessed

by Thousands — Creditable

Performances.

The Forepaugh-Sells circus company Friday transformed West Side

Ball park into a city of tents, gave

two excellent performances before

vast audiences and then took advantage of the early hours of Saturday morning to steam away to Louisiana,

Mo. The thousands of Jacksonville and Morgan county residents who peopled the tents Friday can testify

that the circus was a very, very good

one, the promises to the public being fulfilled.

A more perfect day in point of weather could not have been arranged for and in the early hours of the morning people began to flock in from the surrounding country. By 9 o'clock several lively barns were full

to the limit, all late customers being turned away to seek places for their horses in streets or alleys. The morning trains, too, were heavily laden and when the homes of Jacksonville had contributed their large quota the crowd was simply dense

and the square and streets near it were black with humanity. This condition prevailed by 10 o'clock and for two hours the people waited patiently

for the parade, which was late in

City and County.

The Sunshine circle of Centenary church will meet at the home of Miss Ruth Kapp, 330 South East street, Saturday afternoon. Please bring mite boxes.

CHILD LABOR LAW

Chief Factory Inspector Issues Circular Calling Attention to Its Provisions.

Edgar T. Davies, chief factory inspector of Illinois, has issued a circular calling the attention of employers to provisions of the new child labor law passed by the last legislature; in force July 1, 1903. Copies of the same have been sent to the various county superintendents of schools throughout the state, as their duties in issuing age and school certificates are specific.

The following is a digest of the law. It applies to stores, offices, mercantile institutions, hotels, laundries, bowling alleys, theatres, concert halls, or places of amusement, manufacturing establishments, factories and workshops, and to minors who may be employed as messengers or drivers therefor, and provides:

That no child under 14 years of age shall work for wages; that no child between 14 and 16 years of age shall be employed or permitted to work unless there is first placed on file by the employer an age and school certificate, issued by the proper school authorities, said certificate to be obtained by the child on oath made by the parent; abolishes the present system of issuing age affidavits for children by notaries public, and invests the sole responsibility in the school authorities; that employers shall keep a register of all the children under 16 years of age in his or her employ. The register to contain the name, place of residence and age of every child employed. That no child under 16 years shall be employed for more than eight hours on any one day or more than forty-eight hours in any one week.

Night Work—That no child under 16 years of age shall be employed or permitted to work at any gainful occupation between the hours of 7 p. m. and 7 a. m.; that no child under 16 years of age shall be permitted to work or to be employed at any time in any theatre, concert hall or place of amusement where liquor is sold; that every child under 16 years of age that works for wages must be able to read and write, or must be attending night school; the presence of any child in an establishment shall constitute prima facie evidence of his or her employment therein; that every employer shall have posted on the wall of each room where minors are employed a time table containing the names of children under 16 years of age employed in that room, their ages and places of residence and the hours employed, together with time allowed for meals; that no child under 16 years of age shall work at a dangerous occupation, or where his health is likely to be injured or morals depraved. Section 11 specifies certain occupations forbidden children. Sections 10 and 11 apply to all children whether employed under the old or new law.

All children employed on or before the 30th day of June who have on file in their places of employment affidavits made out by a notary public (if said affidavits were on file prior to the 1st day of July), will not have to secure new age and school certificates, unless they change their places of employment. Provided that in cases where the child is apparently under 14 and may be working under a false affidavit, said child will have to procure a new certificate when ordered by the inspector. Employers must have an age and school certificate on file for all children hired on or after July 1, 1903.

The employer is only required to have one certificate, which is the "age and school certificate." It should be printed similar to the enclosed sample. (Since the school authorities furnish their own printed matter). The form of certificate may differ in the manner in which the form is set up, but the reading matter is prescribed by law.

AGE AND SCHOOL CERTIFICATES—HOW APPROVED.

An age and school certificate shall be approved only by the superintendent of schools or by a person authorized by him in writing; or where there is no superintendent of schools, by a person authorized by the school board: Provided, That the superintendent or principal of a parochial school shall have the right to approve an age certificate and shall have the same rights and powers as the superintendent of public schools to administer the oaths herein provided for children attending parochial schools: Provided, further, That no member of a school board or other person authorized as aforesaid, shall have the authority to approve such certificates for any child then in or about to enter his own establishment, or the employment of a firm or corporation of which he is a member, officer or employee. The person approving these certificates shall have the authority to administer the oath provided herein, but no fee shall be charged therefor. It shall be the duty of the school board or local school authorities to designate a place (connected with their offices, when practicable) where certificates shall be issued and recorded, and to establish and maintain the necessary records and clerical service for carrying out the provisions of this act.

The manner in which a child procures an age and school certificate is as follows:

The boy or girl applies to the school it last attended for a school certificate, which (school certificate) it takes, accompanied by one of its parents to the superintendent of schools, or to the one who has been assigned by him in writing to issue certificates. From this official the child obtains an age and school certificate like the sample enclosed. The child surrenders the original or school certificate, which is filed away by the superintendent.

An age and school certificate can be issued by the proper authorized official, when a child presents satisfactory evidence that it is 14 years of age or over, by either of the following proofs: A school certificate from the public or parochial school, a certificate of birth or baptism or by the register of birth with a town or city clerk, and in case arising wherein the above proof is not obtainable, the parent or guardian of the child shall make before the juvenile or county court as to the age of such child and the court may issue to such child an age certificate as sworn to, in which case the certificate issued by the court may be exchanged for an age and school certificate by the official who issue age and school certificates, provided that in all cases the child can read at sight and write legibly simple sentences, (any language). The certificate of the principal of a public or parochial school shall be prima facie evidence as to the literacy or illiteracy of the child.

Copies of the law, wall lists and any information desired will be promptly furnished by the department of state factory inspectors on request.

The American Central Insurance company, of St. Louis, represented by J. M. Coons, of this city, have forwarded to Chas. Dalrymple a check for the insurance on horses burned in Erixon & Kennedy's barn, and the promptness in making this settlement gives evidence of the high standing of the company.

DID GOOD BUSINESS.

The various livery and feed stables did a good business Friday, several of them turning away customers as early as 9 o'clock in the morning. Fully 800 vehicles were stationed in and about the different barns while at least 1,200 head of horses were fed and cared for. The country was well represented for miles around, a number coming from Brown county on the west and Mason and Menard counties on the north.

The local trains brought about 1,500 visitors to the city and the crowd could safely be estimated at from 6,000 to 8,000 people.

THE MATRIMONIAL RECORD.

WAMBOLD-DAVIS.

Miss Ida Davis, of Whitehall, and R. S. Wambold, of Philadelphia, Pa., were married in Whitehall Wednesday evening, Sept. 2. Only a few friends and immediate relatives were present and after the ceremony supper was served at the home of the bride's brother, Lorenzo Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Wambold left on the evening train for a western trip. Both parties are well known in this city, where they held positions at the State School for the Deaf. Miss Davis was supervisor at the school during four years and Mr. Wambold was athletic director during the past year. They will reside in Oklahoma City, where Mr. Wambold has been appointed to a responsible position at the Military academy in that city.

BARNHART-FINLEY.

Miss Emma L. Finley, of this city, and Victor William Barnhart, of Roodhouse, were married Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the Centenary parsonage by Rev. A. L. T. Ewert. Both are young people highly respected by their many friends. They will reside in Roodhouse, where the groom is employed in railroad work.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Ella L. Carlisle entertained a number of young people at her home on South Main street Thursday evening in honor of the twenty-first birthday of her son, Earl M. Carlisle. The evening was most delightfully spent playing various games and a graphophone concert given by A. E. Carlisle was heard with pleasure. Excellent refreshments were served and the occasion proved a most enjoyable one. Those present were: Mrs. Margaret Humphrey, Misses Emma and May Scott, Ethel Craig, Lucretia Crabble, Laura Farrell, Margaret Clancy, Jeanette Glines; Messrs. Frank Preston, Eckhardt Hoffman, John Smeders, Harvey Fanning.

WILL PUBLISH MONDAY.

PILES OF MONEY.

It happens naturally that a big circus like the one which visited Jacksonville Friday takes in immense sums of money, largely in silver. The circus managers never attempt to transport this money from city to city, but take it to some bank and get Chicago or New York exchange. At Farrell & Co.'s bank late yesterday afternoon, bag after bag of silver coin could be seen on a counter and nearby a great stack of bills. There was $15,000 or more in sight and the circus people took New York exchange for it.

ARRESTS MADE

Bulgarian Army Officers are Charged With Conspiracy.

Belgrade, Sept. 4.—A number of officers of Nish and other garrisons in Serbia were arrested in connection with issuance of a proclamation demanding trial by court martial of conspirators who instigated the assassination of King Alexander, Queen Draga and the ministry.

Later it was announced a group of officers of Nish garrison decided to kill all conspirators concerned in the palace assassination and that many officers of other garrisons joined them. It was intended to act at an early date, but the news leaked out and all the conspirators were arrested during the night. Forty-seven officers were arrested at Nish alone.

COMPANY I HOME AGAIN.

Company I returned from camp at Springfield Friday evening and the boys all report a fine experience. The company has been in charge of First Lieut. Wesley James, as Capt. E. C. Vickery has been acting as major owing to a vacancy in the regiment. The behavior of the company has been excellent and the company had the honor of furnishing guard detail at the mansion Tuesday night.

Sergeant Owen also distinguished himself while serving on duty at the guard house Thursday night. A prisoner had been turned over to the guard from the hands of the provost, who had had considerable trouble with him, and soon after he had been placed in custody he tried to run the guard line. Sergeant Owen, unable to halt him by word of command, took after the fugitive and brought him to bay by a foot ball tackle. His action was highly commended by his superior officer.

ARE INDIGNANT.

Pekin, Sept. 4.—Severe wounds inflicted upon two Americans by French soldiers has created general indignation against the policy of German and French commanders in ordering their soldiers to carry side arms while off duty. After the German-Austrian army last May foreign commanders agreed to prohibit carrying of side arms while men were outside their posts. This agreement, however, was overruled by the German general and soldiers of the Kaiser were again ordered to wear side arms and their example was followed by the French. All other foreign soldiers go unarmed. Witnesses of the affair declare the French were clearly the aggressors. The French commander treats the matter lightly, but a strong request for punishment of the guilty persons has been made by Captain Brewster, military attaché of the American legation.

THE MAYOR DECLINED.

Burlington, Iowa, Sept. 4.—The mayors of the cities of Iowa have been called upon to act as judges of feminine beauty, and as such have been asked to select from their several localities women noted for their beauty, character and other distinguishing features. The object of this call for types of Iowa feminine beauty is to form an album of beautiful women for the Iowa building at the St. Louis exposition. Mayor Marquardt, of Burlington, was requested to select the women to represent Burlington. He declined to do so. He said: "I don't want to have anything to do with it. It looks like a graft, and even if it were not, I don't want to touch it." It is recalled that a similar scheme was presented a year or two ago. It is believed here that the scheme is a private enterprise.

THE ACTUARIES.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Actuaries' convention to day was devoted largely to discussion of technical papers on various matters affecting insurance. Discussion of state supervision of insurance developed a strong feeling in favor of that plan, and especially among foreign delegates. James R. Garfield, commissioner of corporations in the department of commerce and labor, and delegate of the United States government, was one of the speakers to day.
